

The vocational training courses this year (2018) commenced on 01/15. Our vocational training courses aim to equip our inmates with professional skills, appropriate professional values, and diligence. The Center is confident that our participants will gain enhanced self-affirmation and a sense of achievement; and they will find employment or start their own businesses with ease after leaving the Center.

Highlights of the Chinese cooking course

Highlights of the baking course

Highlights of the welding course

